Re: New York v. Chad F. Wolf, et al., No. 20 Civ. 1127 (JMF) (S.D.N.Y.)
Lewis-McCoy, et al. v. Chad Wolf, et al., No. 20 Civ. 1142 (JMF) (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Furman:

This Office represents the defendants in the above-referenced actions. In connection with plaintiffs' pending motions for summary judgment, we write respectfully to advise the Court that counsel for the U.S. Department of Homeland Security ("DHS") has informed this Office that U.S. Customs and Border Protection ("CBP") is continuing to evaluate the means by which it can obtain DMV information in order to vet all Trusted Traveler Program applicants, including from state and territorial governments, third parties, or applicants themselves. We are not certain that this continuing evaluation by CBP is directly pertinent to the Court's determination of the motions pending in this case, but in the overall context of this litigation we believe this is information the Court should be aware of. Should the Court desire any further information the Government would be pleased to comply.

Respectfully submitted,

AUDREY STRAUSS
Acting United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York
